

RM-10808 makes tremendous sense. It will enlarge the amateur community, spur radio sales, provide better public safety and help to revive a dying hobby. CW is still the best mode under poor operating conditions but it is no longer vital to the amateur as a means to communicate, in fact it hurts the hobby by restricting interested parties in taking part.